

Business Continuity Advisory

April 6th 2020

A few months ago, we would have never dreamt our world would be facing such turbulent times, but we at ShipLilly remain confident that together we will prevail.

To support your business in times of need, while at the same time we make swift decisions to protect our team's health and safety, our warehousing facilities continue operating and available to help with your business strategic short/long-term warehousing and overflow needs, as well as carrying operations to transport supplies globally via land, sea, and air.

If you have any questions about the type of services we provide and the one your business needs, please don't hesitate to reach our office numbers, we are here for you.

In the days to come, we will continue to move forward towards a strengthened future with our clients, employees, and friends in mind. If you are among them, we thank you. And if you're not, we thank you for your continuous support and look forward to serving you when the time is right. Please take great care of yourself and your loved ones – nothing is more important than your health and safety.

Sincerely,

ShipLilly Team
